" Away from the tourist clichés and the highly popular area in the North of the island, while enjoying the sea, excursions and the Mauritian atmosphere, it is a charming corner to stay: Flic en Flac! It is on the West coast of the island that lies this splendid village, sheltered from the wind almost year-round. It is mainly here you'll have the privilege each morning to see very many cetaceans in this illustrious Indian ocean. The geographical situation of Flic en Flac, served by a well-developed transportation network, allows you to both travel to the capital and make an expedition in the wilderness on the West Coast.
